Remember... Membership has its benefits

Read on...

Blake West, president of the Kansas NEA

KNEA staff have been working extra duty during the period leading up to and following May 1 to make sure we provide the best possible service as districts issue RIFs, non-renewals, and make employment decisions.

These issues may not currently be effecting you, but keep in mind that as a member you are entitled to these benefits. Remember, the first, best place for most members to seek help is their Local Education Association President.

Included in member help:

- * Rights assistance - nonrenewal, RIF with/without contract language
- * Helps with unemployment compensation
- * Kansas Department of Labor important links
- * Sample letters for unemployment requests
- * Resume helps, letters of reference, job search tips
- * Health Insurance - rights, resources, forms, letters
- * Cobra - rights, resources, forms, sample letters
- * Relicensing, adding endorsements
- * NEA Member Benefit programs
